"To TEACH as JESUS did"

Ministry 2025
Pastoral Planning Guidebook

December, 2016
LETTER TO THE DIOCESE OF SIOUX CITY

Dear brother priests, deacons, religious, brothers and sisters in the Lord Jesus:

With grateful hearts for God’s abundant goodness to us, we embark on the Ministry 2025 Pastoral Planning process in our Diocese of Sioux City. This is an exciting yet challenging time for our diocese. In my first pastoral letter to you I stated,

“The Church is always in need of renewal because it is made up of us, imperfect human beings. This is the deepest reason: as individuals and as a Church, we are always called to grow, change, deepen, repent, convert, improve, and learn from our successes and failures in the pursuit of holiness and fidelity to Jesus Christ and the mission He has given us. Moreover, we need to do this in the midst of an ever changing world, culture and society.” – Ecclesia Semper Reformanda

Six years after I first wrote those words they are still relevant to all of us in the Diocese of Sioux City. As the Church and the diocese strives to keep up with the ever changing world in which we live, this Jubilee Year of Mercy serves as an opportunity to examine our mission to teach as Jesus did. A deep and abiding faith exists in the parishes and families of northwest Iowa. We know that the Church of the Diocese of Sioux City has made a difference in people’s lives through the celebration of the Sacraments, Catholic education and catechesis and works of charity. If we want our mission to continue and prosper it is necessary for us to look into the future and plan our ministries accordingly.

We must be proactive and wise in our stewardship and growth as a diocese. We need to understand, embrace and leverage our growing diversity in all forms. As we seek to be good stewards of the temporal affairs of the Church while ensuring that our priests live healthy, holy and happy lives throughout their ministry. We must be wise stewards and use the financial and personnel resources that we have in a way that effectively carries out our mission. We must also take advantage of the opportunities which changes in technology and communication offer. We should be grounded in a shared practice of adoration for 30 minutes or more whenever we gather, so that we are more tuned to the calling of the Holy Spirit, and the pastoral needs of the faithful.

In this pastoral planning process I want to once again challenge all of us as I did when I first issued my pastoral letter in these important areas:

- Renewal in love and appreciation of the Eucharist
- Renewal in catechesis, especially for our adults
- Renewal in marriage and family life
- Renewal in Culture, encouraging vocations
- Renewal in Missionary Character

The Ministry 2025 process is intended to provide a clear, consistent, simple and straight-forward process of organizing and reporting our assessment of our parishes. Together we will set goals towards Ministry 2025 that will help us to be the presence of Christ in the world. We will together define the key actions we must take at the parish level to build the Catholic Church and to attend to the pastoral and sacramental needs of the faithful. This diocesan-wide and parish level assessment, reflection, planning and action will enable us all to live holy lives, rooted in Jesus Christ. We will grow in our faith and be strengthened in our Catholic identity so we can enable our parishes and schools and thus the entire Diocese of Sioux City to indeed become a stronger, more visible presence of Christ in northwest Iowa.

Your brother in Christ,

Most Reverend R. Walker Nickless

Prayer for Ministry 2025 Pastoral Planning
Diocese of Sioux City

Grant, we pray, almighty God, that we the people of the Diocese of Sioux City prayerfully look to the future. During this time of pastoral planning, we implore the Holy Spirit to pour out upon us the gifts of wisdom, understanding, courage and hope.

May we exercise the virtue of prudence by opening our hearts and minds to be good stewards of the legacy of faith inherited from those who built the Church in northwest Iowa;

May we exercise the virtue of justice by opening our hearts and minds to assure that the voices of persons from all generations, all vocations and all areas of the diocese are welcomed and respected;

May we exercise the virtue of fortitude by opening our hearts and minds to understand and acknowledge the spiritual and practical realities of our day and prepare for the days to come;

May we exercise the virtue of temperance by opening our hearts and minds to accept the changes in diocesan, parish and personal life that the Holy Spirit, through this planning process, is guiding us to make.

Under the protection of Our Lady of Guadalupe, our patroness and Saint Joseph, our patron, may we discern and implement what is best for the diocesan Church and all the faithful of the Diocese of Sioux City.

Through Christ, our Lord. Amen.
MINISTRY 2025

Our Ministry 2025 Pastoral Plan calls the faithful and ordained of the Diocese of Sioux City to an engaged and enlivened Catholic Church that is vibrant and relevant to all in our lives, our families, and our communities. Our Ministry 2025 provides for an extension of Ecclesia Semper Reformanda and its key points of renewal:

- Renewal in Eucharistic Spirituality: We must renew our reverence, love, adoration and devotion to the Most Blessed Sacrament, within and outside of Mass. A renewal of Eucharistic Spirituality necessarily entails an ongoing implementation of the Second Vatican Council’s reform of the liturgy as authoritatively taught by the Church’s Magisterium, the promotion of Eucharistic Adoration outside of Mass, regular reception of the Sacrament of Reconciliation and devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary, the Mother of the Eucharist and our Mother.

- Renewal in Catechesis: We must strengthen catechesis on every level, beginning with and focusing on adults. If we, who are supposed to be mature in faith, do not know the Catholic Faith well, how can we live it and impart it to our children and future generations of Catholics?

- Renewal in Family: The first two pastoral priorities, renewal in Eucharistic Spirituality and Catechesis, will foster faithful families that are the foundation of the Church and the society. We are called to protect, build up and foster holy families in our midst, without whom the Church and the world perish.

- Renewal in Culture: If we renew the Eucharistic, catechetical, and family life of our diocese, we will simultaneously foster a culture where young people can more readily respond to the radical calls of ministerial priesthood and the consecrated life.

- Renewal in Missionary Character: We must acknowledge and embrace the missionary character of the Catholic Faith and the vocation of all Catholics to be, not only disciples, but also apostles.

The Ministry 2025 Pastoral Plan describes these elements of renewal in both narratives and numbers across Parish Grouping Pastoral Planning during 2017 and 2018:

A. Vibrant and Responsible Diocesan Operations

B. Vibrant and Engaging Parish Sacramental Life and Ministries

C. Vibrant, Healthy, and Holy Priests, Deacons and Religious

CHAPTER VI.

PARISHES, PASTORS, AND PAROCHIAL VICARS

Can. 528

§1. A pastor is obliged to make provisions so that the word of God is proclaimed in its entirety to those living in the parish; For this reason, he is to take care that the lay members of the Christian faithful are instructed in the truths of the faith, especially by giving a homily on Sundays and holy days of obligation and by offering catechetical instruction. He is to foster works through which the Spirit of the Gospel is promoted, even in what pertains to social justice. He is to have particular care for the Catholic education of children and youth. He is to make every effort, even with the collaboration of the Christian faithful, so that the message of the gospel comes also to those who have ceased the practice of their religion or do not profess the true faith.

§2. The pastor is to see to it that the Most Holy Eucharist is the center of the parish assembly of the faithful. He is to work so that the Christian faithful are nourished through the devout celebration of the sacraments and, in a special way, that they frequently approach the sacraments of the Most Holy Eucharist and penance. He is also to endeavor that they are led to practice prayer, even as families, and take part consciously and actively in the sacred liturgy which, under the authority of the diocesan bishop, the pastor must direct in his own parish and is bound to watch over so that no abuses creep in.

§1. In order to fulfill his office diligently, a pastor is to strive to know the faithful entrusted to his care. Therefore he is to visit families, sharing especially in the cares, anxieties, and griefs of the faithful, strengthening them in the Lord, and prudently correcting them if they are failing in certain areas. With generous love he is to help the sick, particularly those close to death, by refreshing them solicitously with the sacraments and commending their souls to God; with particular diligence he is to seek out the poor, the afflicted, the lonely, those exiled from their country, and similarly those weighed down by special difficulties. He is to work so that spouses and parents are supported in fulfilling their proper duties and is to foster growth of Christian life in the family.

§2. A pastor is to recognize and promote the proper part which the lay members of the Christian faithful have in the mission of the Church, by fostering their associations for the purposes of religion. He is to cooperate with his own bishop and the presbyteriam of the diocese, also working so that the faithful have concern for parochial communion, consider themselves members of the diocese and of the universal Church, and participate in and sustain efforts to promote this same communion.

E. Development of Key Communications structure and protocols to be used by the team, pastors, and staff throughout the pastoral planning process. This may include, but not be limited to:
   a. Website, including access to all reports and team developments, glossary of terms, access to diocesan website and resources, as well as FAQ (Frequently Asked Questions)
   b. Weekly bulletin inserts and articles
   c. Pulpit announcements
d. Schools, Religious Education and Ministry handouts

For most parish groupings, Step One Orientation and Introduction may take up to three months and 2 – 3 meetings in order to develop and process the current strengths and weaknesses of the parishes and schools, as well as understand the Ministry 2025 Elements A – C, the Ministry 2025 design of parish groupings and schools, and the Ministry 2025 Parish Grouping Report for each of the 31 parish groupings.

Some existing parishes choose to develop an historical narrative of their parish, with photos, stories, and descriptors. For many parishes, this is presented in a digital format that is accessible and distributed to parishioners over the internet, while some parishes develop a published paper document.
Step Two Key Objectives

A. Provide an Assessment of the current parish grouping to Ministry 2025 Pastoral Plan, its Key Elements A – C

B. Develop 3 Year and 1 Year Goals for Elements A – C

C. Develop a timeframe and key people for Inventory of Sacred and Secular Goods by each current parish

Refer to the following worksheets for developing an Assessment of the parish grouping for Ministry 2025 Elements A – C as well as drafting of Year 1 and Year 3 Goals.

For many parishes that are already collaborating, this assessment and goal setting is usually straightforward. For parish groupings that have not collaborated in the past, this assessment takes time over a few meetings, as the individual parish assessments are rolled up into a parish grouping assessment, and then goal setting for the entire parish grouping, and not for the individual parishes.

For new parish groupings, the 1\textsuperscript{st} year goals usually are modest, trying to maintain or slightly improve current conditions, while seeking to improve such goals in year three and beyond. For somewhat established parish groupings, improved performance towards Ministry 2025 Element A – C goals can begin in Year One.

The Inventory of Sacred and Secular Goods (Pages xx – xx in this Guidebook) needs to be completed by each current parish prior to any change in canonical status, and is designed to secure the goods of the parish. Sound practice is to take photos of all goods and cross reference with a tabular listing. Typically, the inventory process can be done most efficiently and effectively with a smaller (3-5) team of people, rather than a large group. This process can require anywhere from a weekend to several days of time, followed by some time for organization and report development.

Due Diligence Directives

A. Ecclesiastical Goods from Alienated Churches

Premise:
Sacred things which are destined for divine worship through dedication or a blessing are to be treated with reverence and not be employed for improper or profane use even if they are under the control of private individuals (Can 1171). The care of the sacred items that belong to the parishes of the Diocese of Sioux City is an important task that the Bishop of the Diocese of Sioux City shares with the pastors of the Diocese. Once an item is purchased or donated for sacred use it must be perpetually cared for.

Decision/Placement:
- Because these sacred items have been dedicated to the service of the Lord it is important that care is taken to assure that they should never be cast aside or turned over to secular, profane or sordid purposes (see Canon 1269).
- Because these items are of a sacred nature they are not to be sold or given away to entities outside of the church. We have a long standing protocol that was established by the Bishops of the Diocese of Sioux City for the distribution of sacred items from closed churches within the diocese.
- Below you will find a list of guiding principles that will assist you in establishing a procedure for removing the sacred items from a closed church/parish. The pastor or his delegate are to make a record of the final disposition of each item on the inventory.
- The following principles and procedure are to be followed when it becomes necessary to close a church within the Diocese of Sioux City:
  - All items of a sacred nature are to be inventoried and labeled. A record of the inventory, a description of each item and the final disposition of each item is to be maintained in the archives of the Diocese of Sioux City and in the archives of the parish that receives the greatest number of parishioners from the closed parish.
  - Once an inventory of sacred items has been completed the pastor(s) of the parish(s) receiving parishioners from the closed parish is to cull through the sacred items and choose the things that he wishes to retain for continued sacred use or for preservation as valuable historic artifacts. These sacred items are not to be dispersed to members of the lay faithful. They are not to be sold or allowed to fall into secular, profane or sordid use. Once an item is donated to a parish for sacred use the item belongs to the service of the Lord and is not to be returned to the donors or their heirs. It is incumbent upon the pastors of the church to protect the sacred nature of the items that are dedicated to Lord and blessed by sacred use.
  - Once the local parish has selected items to be retained for continued sacred use or kept for historic purposes then the pastor is to invite the other pastors of the parishes of the Diocese of Sioux City to select items that they may want to make use of. Again, it is important to remember that these sacred items are not to be sold or allowed to fall into secular, profane or sordid use. An announcement of the availability of such items can be electronically communicated to all pastors and administrators and a copy of the inventory could be made available.
  - Sufficient time should be provided for the pastors of the Diocese of Sioux City to select items for sacred use within the Diocese. Once this stage is complete then the local pastor is encouraged to seek religious institutions and/or domestic and foreign missionary
Plan for Use of Goods

Institutions that may be interested in receiving the remaining sacred items. All items that are left unclaimed should be disposed of after consultation with the Diocesan Office of Worship.

- At every stage of the above process the pastor or his delegate should complete the section of the inventory which indicates final disposition of each object. Once completed a paper and electronic copy of the completed inventory should be given to the archivist of the Diocese of Sioux City and a copy consigned to the archives of the parish.
- Approved and promulgated for the Diocese of Sioux City on the 26 day of October, 2015.

Storage of Goods:

- If an immediate use for a good, sacred or religious, is not identified within the Diocese of Sioux City, arrangements will be made for their archived storage at the Diocesan repository located at the chancery office. A secondary repository will be determined if necessary for a space for large items which require more than one able body to move items at any given time. All items that are placed into storage will be accompanied by appropriate identifiers such as the item’s parish of origin, its years of use, particular relevancies, and the identity of its donor (if applicable).
- The archived items will be cataloged in a way that allows for their future use at another Catholic Church or chapel.
- Permission for future use at another location can only be given by the bishop.
- Proceeds resulting from the sale of any ecclesiastical goods held in the Diocesan repository are to be returned to their local parish for pious causes.

Gifts:

- Gifts to the Church are accepted without condition.
- The authority to determine the future use of items gifted to a parish is held with the Office of the Bishop. Past donations do not carry with them ties to benefactors or their descendants (Canon 1301).

Decommissioning/Disposal:

- If it is determined that a sacred or religious item is damaged beyond repair as a result of its physical state, age or otherwise, disposal may be pursued only with permission from the local pastor/parish administrator.
- For items fitting this condition that are held in the Diocesan repository, only after receiving the permission of the bishop may disposal be carried out. Disposal should be carried out using either burial or burning, in accord with Church norms.

Directives/Sequence: Issuance of a Decree of Alienation by the Bishop of Sioux City sets in motion the following activities:

- Priests to identify and separate personal (from Church) ecclesiastical goods.
- Diocesan staff arranges with the pastor/administrator to formulate an inventory of sacred and religious goods as soon as possible after decree is issued.
- Diocesan staff, in close consultation with the local pastor/administrator, are to research possible uses for the individual inventory items using the following criteria:
  - Use at a neighboring parish, especially those that will be receiving Catholic faithful displaced by the parish/church closing.
• Unique ties to the parish (i.e.: mission parish, daughter churches, common pastor)
• Complementary style of church architecture

- Formal proposal for dissemination of ecclesiastical goods presented to the bishop for approval.
- Included in the proposal should be goods scheduled to be delivered to the Diocesan Repository.
- No goods are to be moved until written permission from the bishop is given.
- Upon receipt of written permission from the bishop, arrangements to move goods to their newfound home are to be finalized. Moves should be completed before the sale of property, unless other provisions with a buyer have been secured.

Types of Ecclesiastical Goods:
• Sacred goods are intrinsically connected with liturgical worship and therefore have a value above merely monetary or emotional consideration. Examples include, but are not limited to: tabernacles, chalices, monstrances, patens, ciboriums, altar linens, vestments, and Stations of the Cross.
• Religious goods are those items readily identifiable as used in the church. Examples include, but are not limited to: stained glass windows, pews, statues, and bells.
Due Diligence Directives

B. Temporal and Secular Goods from Alienated Churches

Premise:
Sensitivity to the manner in which a good may have been procured by the parish or given to the parish must be given at all times. Sacrifice on the part of an individual or family may be represented by a particular good.

Directive:
• The pastor/administrator is responsible for inventorying and determining the value of temporal and secular goods at a church that is to be alienated. Good judgment will be the rule when determining a particular item’s value.
• The pastor/administrator is responsible for determining the future use for goods deemed valuable.
• Probability of use at another parish should be a first consideration when determining future use of a good holding value.
• “Market basis”, a likelihood that the item(s) can be sold in exchange for monetary proceeds, should be a secondary consideration.
• Arrangements for temporal or secular goods should be finalized before the sale of property housing the item(s).
• Proceeds from the sale of any temporal or secular good may only be directed locally and toward pious goods. The funds will be kept with the local parish or directed in the same manner its funds have been.

Goods of Nominal Value:
• Goods of nominal or no value and otherwise unlikely to be used should be discarded.
• Sensitivity to the manner in which a good may have been procured by the parish or given to the parish must be given at all times. Sacrifice on the part of an individual or family may be represented by a particular good.

Gifts:
• Gifts to the Church are accepted without condition. The authority to determine the future use of items gifted to a parish is held with the Office of the Bishop. This authority may be delegated to the local pastor. Past donations do not carry with them ties to benefactors or their descendants (Canon 1301).

Examples:
Temporal and Secular goods include but are not limited to: Vases, cooking equipment, silver/dishware, planters, lawn/snow equipment, furniture, etc.
